

Student data file needed:

No data file needed

You will save your file as:

pm01ws01BloodDrive_LastFirst.mpp

Organizing a Blood Drive at Your Community College

You have been asked by the student senate to be the project lead of a blood drive at your school to promote a cause that saves millions of lives each year. To demonstrate your project management skills, you decide to use Project 2013 to set up the plan for the blood drive. You have been given the date of October 14, 2016 as the date the event will take place.

